Parliamentary Workshop

Student Leadership Summit -- September 27, 2014

Why Parliamentary Procedure?

Principles Underlying Parliamentary Procedure are constructed upon a careful balance of the rights:

- ✓ Of the majority,
- ✓ Of the minority,
- ✓ Of the individual members,
- ✓ Of the absentees, and
- ✓ Of all of these groups together.

Parliamentary Procedure enables the membership:

- ✓ To express its will through its membership,
- ✓ To empower an effective leadership, and
- ✓ To retain direct control of its affairs.

A majority decides the will of the assembly through a deliberative process of full and free discussion.

Every member has the same right to make the maximum effort to have his position declared the will of assembly.

Parliamentary procedure (effective meeting management) allows an assembly to arrive at the will of the majority for the greatest number of questions in the shortest amount of time. This is accomplished regardless of whether the assembly is in total harmony or impassionate division of opinion.

Hierarchy of Governance

1. Federal Statutes (regulatory guidelines)
2. State Laws:
 - a. Brown Act of 1953
 - b. Education Code
 - c. Corporations Code – Board of Directors, Quorum, Voting
 - d. California Public Records Act
3. City and Local Statutes
4. Constitution: Name; Object
5. Bylaws: A Society's Business Defined
6. Rules of Order (Robert's): Everything else
7. Standing Rules: Maintenance rules and operational policies
8. Customs: Scary part

Dos and Don'ts of Minute Taking

Make sure you ...

1. DO use the agenda as a guide;
2. DO record the kind of meeting, date, time, and location;
3. DO record the presiding officer's and the minute taker's complete name;
4. DO record the presence of a quorum if announced by the presiding officer;
5. DO write the full name of the maker of every motion;
6. DO include the totals from the treasurer's report for previous balance, receipts, disbursements, and current balance;
7. DO record the full names of officers and committee chairs who presented a report;
8. DO file complete signed reports of all written reports attached to the minutes as exhibits;
9. DO enter motions and amendments in the exact wording as stated by the presiding officer and as finally adopted;
10. DO show the exact action taken on every motion (e.g., adopted, defeated, postponed, referred, laid on the table, etc.);
11. DO record all balloted or ordered counted votes, for and against (Brown Act!);
12. DO record all Notices, Points of Order, Appeals (including the reason for the chair's ruling and the outcome of the appeal);
13. DO include the category of business;
14. DO list the names of members elected or appointed to special committees, the name of each committee, and its purpose;
15. DO include important announcements pertaining to the whole society.

Make sure to ...

1. NOT forget to check past minutes for agenda items;
2. NOT include the names of the seconders;
3. NOT include every detail from a report;
4. NOT include any content of debate unless ordered by the assembly to do so;
5. NOT include any motion withdrawn before the presiding officer stated it;
6. NOT include personal opinions or descriptive phrases;
7. NOT include words of praise or criticism from anyone;
8. NOT forget to include the time of adjournment;
9. NOT close with "Humbly" or "Respectfully submitted,";
10. NOT forget to date and sign the minutes with your title, adding whether the minutes were later adopted with or without corrections.

Parliamentary Workshop

Student Leadership Summit -- September 27, 2014

Debate Protocol (Similar to a trial in front of a judge.)

1. Only one person speaks at a time.
2. A speaker must be recognized before speaking.
3. All comments are made through the chair.
4. Comments are confined to the current issue.
5. Discussion should alternate between Pro and Con.
6. Have no right to complain; only have a right to make a motion.
7. No reading of lengthy papers.
8. No cross conversations; no interruptions.
9. No verbal attacks of other members.
10. If proper decorum cannot be maintained – call a recess.
11. Enforce the debate time limits (bylaws or the parliamentary authority).
12. Decisions are null and void in the absence of a quorum or proper posting.
13. The vote required to adopt a motion should always be very clear – majority or 2/3.
14. All decisions are binding on all members regardless of how a member voted.
15. All rules must be respected and obeyed – who can move, debate, vote.

Problem motions during debate

- Request for Information
- Question of Privilege (also, Adjourn, Recess)
- Point of Order (also, Previous Question, Division)

[Temporary Disposition of a motion means that a motion is not adopted or defeated, yet. There are a few motions that will accomplish this delay of a final decision:

1. Move to Lay the motion on the Table.
This requires a temporary emergency. You probably have never seen this motion applied correctly especially in the movies.
2. Move to Postpone the motion.
One may postpone the motion to later in the session or to the next meeting.
3. Move to Refer the motion.
One may refer the motion to an ad hoc or a standing committee, and have the committee report at the next meeting or later.]

Typical Debate Protocol Situation:

[We need 7 speaking roles: Ch, A, B, C, D, E, Z]

Ch: Our next item under New Business is what instructions to give the delegates.
Do we have a motion?

A: We should advise them to think of our district, exclusively.

B: No, we should tell them to think of all special districts in California.

Ch: Please wait to be recognized.

Which of you is ready to make a motion?

A: Shouldn't we discuss the topic for 45 minutes so that we can explore everyone's thoughts on what the motion should be?

Ch: No. All discussion is limited to the motion on the floor. We cannot discuss aimlessly fishing for inspiration.

Ch: Member A, are you ready to make a motion?

A: I move that we advise the delegates to vote only for motions that favor us.

Z: Second

B: But, that means that ...

Ch: Please wait, Member B.

I need to state the motion so that all know what the discussion is limited to.

It is moved and seconded to advise the delegates to vote only for motions that favor us.
Are you ready for the question? [Or, Is there any discussion?]

B: So, does that mean that ...

Ch: Member B. You must wait to be recognized before speaking.

And anyway, the mover of the motion has the right to speak first on the motion.

The mover of the motion, Member, A has the floor.

A: That's OK. I want to hear what others have to say.

Ch: Member B, do you wish to speak on the motion?

B: Why can't the delegates just meet on their own and decide on their own? Isn't that what delegates are supposed to do? Why do we have to spoon-feed them?

[Member E raises his hand to seek recognition.]

Ch: Thank you for your comments. Member C has just raised his hand.

B: Wait a minute I did not get any answers to my questions.

Ch: Member B, you were recognized to discuss, not to make rhetorical questions, or argumentative statements. You did not seek recognition to move, "Request for Information." We listened with respect, and now it is Member C's turn to discuss.

B: [Member B Turns to the Member D who is sitting next to him and asks.]

Don't you think my questions are valid?

D: Shhh. I want to hear Member C's comments. He is always either laughable or profound.

Ch: Please no private conversations. Cross talk prevents others from hearing the discussion.

B: Can't I take Member D to the back of the room to plan our debate?

Ch: The only way your private conversation will not be a distraction to this board is if you quietly take it out in the hallway.

[Member E and Member B raise their hands to seek recognition.]

Ch: Member C, did you wish to address this board?

C: What is the registration fee?

Ch: Member C, please confine your comments to the current motion.

If you have no comments on the current motion, Member B is our next speaker.

E: Point of Order, Mr. Chair.

Ch: State your Point of Order, Member E.

E: I have been seeking recognition for 10 minutes. You keep ignoring me. Actually, you even recognize members who have already spoken and then ignored me. I have not had an opportunity to be heard.

Ch: Your Point of Order is well taken. I apologize for that.

Members who have already spoken will not be recognized again until those who have not spoken have had an opportunity to be heard. You have the floor, Member E.

E: I forgot what I was going to say.

Six Steps to Handling a Motion

A motion is a formal proposal by a member during a meeting that the assembly take certain action. The basic form of the motion is the Main Motion.

A Main Motion is brought before an assembly:

1. Motion is moved: While no motion is pending, a member “rises” and seeks recognition. Once she is recognized she has the exclusive right to be heard at that time. Member makes the motion, “I move we allocate $300 to repair the computers.”
2. Motion is seconded: Someone without needing to be recognized, seconds the motion. The seconder is not claiming to agree with motion. The seconder is stating that the motion should be discussed and voted by the organization.
3. Motion is stated: The chair states the question, “It is moved and seconded to allocate $300 to repair the computers.” As the chair turns to the maker of the motion, she states, “Are you ready for the question?” The motion no longer belongs to the mover; it belongs to the assembly.

A Main Motion is considered by the assembly:

4. Motion is debated: All remarks by the members are made to the chair, never to or about another member. Debate can be closed only by a 2/3 vote by the assembly.
5. Motion is put: The chair says, “The motion is to allocate $300 to repair the computers. All in favor of the motion indicate by saying, ‘Aye’.
All opposed to the motion indicate by saying, ‘No’.”
The wording of the motion when the question is put is the way it goes into effect.
A voice vote is the regular method when a majority vote is required for adoption.*
A rising vote is the normal method when a 2/3 vote is required for adoption.*
A ‘show of hands’ is intended for small assemblies or after an inconclusive voice vote.*
6. Vote is announced: The chair makes the following 4 statements.
 - “The ‘ayes’ have it. Or, the ‘Noes’ have it.”
 - “The motion is adopted. Or, the motion is lost.”
 - The chair states the effect of the vote or orders its execution.
 - “The next item of business is ...”

Beware the Brown Act requirements*

A: I have distributed several documents illustrating the specifications and benefits of the best printer model under $1,500. That is the one I suggest we purchase.

CH: Thank you for your comments. Are you ready for the question?

A: [Is recognized and begins to speak for the second time.]

C: Madam Chair, Point of Order.

D: Do we have the right to spend up to $1,500 on a printer system?

CH: The council has already been authorized to spend a certain amount of money on business equipment as long as it is for the benefit of the student body. Are you ready for the question?

[Step 5]

CH: The question before you is shall the council purchase a printer system at a cost not to exceed $1,500?

Z: Division. Division.

Script B: Postpone to a Certain Time vs. Lay on the Table

Ch: The motion before you is to hold the next retreat on a cruise ship.
Are you ready for the question?

A: Mr. Chair.

Ch: Yes, Member A.

[As Member A starts to speak, he notices that an important official from our Administrative Office has entered the room signaling a request for a few minutes of the board's time.]

A: I notice that the board's attention is requested by our administration.
I move to Lay the current motion on the Table.

Ch: If there is no objection, the pending question is Laid on the Table.

[No one objects.]

[Notice. No time limit is ever given with the motion to Lay on the Table!]

[The official delivers information on an upcoming fundraiser and leaves.]

B: Mr. Chair.

Ch: Yes, Member B.

B: I move that this board 'supports' the upcoming fundraiser.

Ch: If there is no objection, this board will 'support' the upcoming fundraiser.
[No one objects.]

C: Mr. Chair.

Ch: Yes, Member C.

C: I move to Take from the Table the motion related to our retreat on a cruise ship.

Ch: If there is no objection, the motion related to our retreat on a cruise ship will be Taken from the Table.

[No one objects.]

[Member A speaks, but too much.]

E: I object

Script D: Point of Order and Appeal

[During the President's Report, the president wishes to add a new item to New Business with a majority vote, but the Bylaws require a 2/3 vote. [6 speakers – CH, Comm CH, A, B, C, D]]

Ch: All in favor of adding to the agenda the new business proposed by the Budget Committee say, "Aye".

[Just over half respond.]

Those opposed say, "No". [Less than half respond.]

The "Ayes" have it. The new business is added to the agenda.

Ch: The next item of business is to hear from the Budget Committee's support of this new business. The chair of the committee will please explain.

Committee Ch: The committee has always believed that ...

A: Point of Order, Madam Chair.

Ch: We are in the middle of a report. Can't you show some manners and wait?

A: Madam Chair, I rise to a point of order, or is it a Point of Parliamentary Inquiry?

Ch: For goodness sakes! What is so important that you have to interrupt our business?

A: Our bylaws clearly state that it takes a 2/3 vote to add any new business to the agenda. You added the new business with a mere majority. The motion to add new business failed.

Ch: You are too late with your point of order. Keep up with the conversation.

Ch: The committee chair shall proceed with her report.

A: Madam chair. Is that your ruling on my point of order?

Ch: Obviously. Weren't you paying attention? Let us listen to the committee's report.

A: I appeal from the decision of the chair!

B: Second

Ch: You what? Fine. Since you insist. There is an appeal on a righteous ruling by the chair. The confused member believes that the vote necessary to add new business to our agenda is a 2/3 vote. I will show how I am infallible.

Here is the process. First I will explain the wisdom of my ruling. And then, anyone else who wishes to discuss the issue and show her limited understanding of our bylaws may speak, but I get to speak again after everyone else has spoken.

Ch: It is a well-known fact that rules can be suspended when dealing with important issues. I believe that there is nothing more important than dealing with new business. I chose to suspend the 2/3 vote required by the bylaws. I took the vote correctly, and I am the president.

A: A bylaw may never be suspended regardless of how inconvenient it may appear. Even under unanimous consent, a bylaw may not be suspended. [p. 263 line 1]

B: Though most points of order must be made before a new issue is introduced, a point of order related to a violation of a bylaw has no such time limitation. [p. 251 line 9]

C: A 2/3 vote cannot even be taken with a voice vote. It must be taken with a rising vote or a show of hands. [p. 401 line 29]

Ch: Does anyone else want to show how little she understands my role as your president?

Ch: I will close debate by reminding you that when you elected me your president, you delegated to me the authority to make these difficult decisions. [p. 255 line 26]

Ch: We are going to vote now.

The question before you is “Shall the decision of the chair be sustained?” This means that a tie will not defeat my decision. Only a majority in the negative will defeat my decision. Also, I can vote to cause a tie, if I want to. [p. 258 line 16]

Ch: As many as are in favor of sustaining the decision of the chair say, “Aye”. [Few vote] Those opposed say, “No”. [Most vote]

Ch: The “Ayes” have it. The decision of the chair is sustained. Thank you all. We will now continue listening to the committee’s explanation.

D: Division. Division. [p. 280 line 10]

Ch: A division of the assembly has been demanded.

All in favor of sustaining the decision of the chair, please rise. [Few rise] Thank you.

Please be seated. All opposed, please rise. [Almost everyone rises] Thank you, please be seated.

It appears to be very close, but I will show you how noble and magnanimous I am. I will yield.

Ch: The amendment of the agenda failed. We will not add to the agenda the New Business as proposed by the Budget Committee. We will return to the President’s Report.
